

Film Night for Grown-Ups

“Marshall”

Thursday, February 22nd

6:30-9:00 PM

Leominster Public Library

“Marshall takes an illuminating, well-acted look at its real-life subject's (Thurgood Marshall) early career and also delivers as an entertainingly old-fashioned courtroom drama.” Rotten Tomatoes

“Thurgood Marshall made history when he became the first African-American Supreme Court justice in 1967. But the film "Marshall" takes place decades earlier in 1940, and it covers just one case where the young Marshall, banned from speaking in court, had to play puppet master for an unnerved white attorney. The tight focus helps make Marshall more courtroom drama than biopic.” Bob Mondello, NPR

This movie is rated PG13.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Leominster Public Library

